Action Items

3. 2023.0.09.04.A
  - a. Discussion of a 2024 tax rate by the Recreation Service District on increasing the tax rate up to 0.0014 to account for increased operating expenses and deferred maintenance. This is an increase of 104% tax revenue from $768,754 to $1,508,794 over the state's proposed rate. The rate of 0.0014 would restore the original rate authorized by the county, which has been decreasing over time.
    - i. John-Looked at rates and shortfalls and know that if changes are not made the agency will not exist in the future. He finds this increase to be severely needed.

Motion to move forward with the intent to increase property taxes by 745,000 at the rate of .0014 for the recreational district for the year 2024 made by Randall Hinton seconded by Cassandra Arnell
